Delinquent Queets
Census.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE

TAHOLAH INDIAN AGENCY,

Taholah, Washington, August 2, 1919.

The COMMISSIONER of INDIAN AFFAIRS,

Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of request on form 5-125 for census of Queets River Indians.

In reply thereto the attention of the Office is again invited to the fact that there are no such Indians as an entity. There are a few Quinalelt Indians living on Queets River, just as there are Quinalelt Indians living on Moclips River.

A year ago, I tried to convince the Office that a special annual report on the Queets River was not necessary, but without success.

So far as I can find a separate census for the few Indians at Queets has never been made, and, in fact, since they shift from Queets to Hoh, and Hoh to Quileute, and Quileute to Taholah, a definite census is rather difficult.

If the Office insists, I will have a Queets census made, but the census of the reservation already presented will then have to be re-written in order to prevent duplication of names.

Very respectfully,

Otis D. Duvon
Supt. & Physician.
